Business Arising from the Minutes: N/A

New Business:

- Thank you and congratulations to our SRC President, Emmeline Pinnock who was elected President of the ASDW Student Leadership Council.
- Thank you to PSSC member Andrew Bruce for hosting the Agriculture class at his farm.
- Review of School Improvement Plan

3 main goals discussed – to follow a consistent approach to collecting and analyzing data, use data to inform actions to support students academically & behaviorally, implement social/emotional learning strategies regularly in K-12 classes to focus on self-regulation, awareness, and stress/anxiety management.

*Discussion around student surveys and plan to share fall results at the next meeting if available. Ask to add/include a question around where student anxieties stem from, school, home, work etc.

- SCS Updates

- Recycling program up and running with Gr 4s as “Recycling Heroes” matching funds through Encorp plus $150 twice a year. Still looking for a box to be built for community drop off and pick up by Porter’s bottle exchange.
- 5 basketball teams at middle and high levels as well as 3 at the K-5 level. Gym is very busy.
- Craft sale and Turkey dinner scheduled for Saturday Nov.18th 2-5pm
- Parent/teacher being held for all of K-12 on Nov. 23 and 24th (This is a change from district calendar to allow for teachers teaching across levels.)

Date of Next Meeting: Dec 12, 2023 - 7:30 pm
